Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri Rajendra Singh learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. It is alleged that the applicant was arrested and at his instance the recovery of one dack and some clothes were recovered from his house. A sum of Rs. 1700/- was also recovered from the house of the applicant. On being made inquiry the learned A.G.A. stated that the list of articles was not furnished to the police, which was taken by the accused at the time of incident. The learned counsel for the applicant contended that there is no evidence, which shows that the recovered articles are related to the said offence. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the C.J.M. concerned.
